CONCORDIA CLASSIC TOURNAMENT HISTORY

THE CONCORDIA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL CLASSIC has been a premier event in collegiate sports since 1972. The tournament was originally called the Loyola Women's Invitational. Although the event has gone through several name changes, it continues to attract some of the top Women's Basketball teams in Canada.

Dalhousie won the first invitational, defeating the Waterloo Athenas 61-47 in the final game. The 1976 tournament was perhaps the most competitive and exciting with 14 members of the Canadian National Team in action. The Stingers upended the eventual National Champion Laurentian Vees 72-67 to win their only Classic Championship.

The Bishop's Gaiters emerged as a Canadian powerhouse in 1979. Former National Team Member Debbie Huband was selected tournament M.V.P. as the Gaiters won their first Classic Title. Bishop's were repeat winners in 1980 as they downed St. Johns (N.Y.). Concordia All-Canadian Joann Bourque was selected tournament M.V.P. as she scored 78 points.

Bishop's ended the U.S. Tournament domination in 1983 as National Team member Andrea Blackwell set two tournament records as the Gaiters defeated U.N.B. in the final. Blackwell scored 43 points in the final and 81 points in the tournament. Both of these totals remain Classic Records.

The Laurentian Vees were repeat winners in 1984 & 1985 as NAN COPP winner Carol Hamilton led the team to consecutive Championships. The McGill Martlets won the classic in both 1986 and 1987. Last year, the Winnipeg Wesmen won their first Classic crown. All-Canadian Margaret Mulder led the team to a 69-47 victory over Laurentian.

The 18th Classic will again feature some of Canada's finest basketball teams. National runner-up U.P.E.I. joins Winnipeg and Laurentian as the teams to beat. All-Canadians Tanya MacKenzie (Winnipeg) and Tina Fasone (McGill) are two key players for their respective teams. 1988-89 conference All-Stars Chantel St. Martin (also with National team) and Shirlene Maclean (Laurentian), Stephanie Smith (U.P.E.I.), Paula Edwards (U.P.E.I.), and Sharron St. Croix (Concordia) are some of the players competing. ▲
